

ISLAND PARK LIBRARY NEWS

A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Recently I was reading The Great Good Place by Ray Oldenburg, in which the author describes a “third place” beyond the realm of the first and second places of home and work. This “place” is where unrelated people relate; where a vital informal public life takes place. Sidewalk cafes, London pubs, coffeehouses and country stores are some of the “third places” he names.

It is where the stranger feels at home and can experience the diversity of human contact. This “place” affords easy access and familiar faces. It is neutral ground and inclusive, where possibilities are expanded and open to all. The “third place” offers a remedy for stress, loneliness and alienation. The library is just that - a Great Good Place. This goes hand in hand with our vision statement which states that we are “a center of community life offering opportunities for people of all ages to learn, know, gather and grow.” Come in and join your neighbors at the Library while attending some of our wonderful programs, meet other parents while your children play in our Children’s Room, read in front of the fireplace, or just come in and visit.
